Alberta Pulse Growers Commission hires new Executive Director

May 20, 2008- The Alberta Pulse Growers Commission welcomes Sheri Strydhorst as their new Executive Director. Sheri is a recent Ph.D. graduate from the University of Alberta, who has worked on nitrogen fixation and increasing the use of pulse crops in Alberta cropping systems. She has worked with cool season pulse crops for 8 years. Her experience, background, and commitment to the pulse industry will help to grow and further develop a sustainable pulse industry in Alberta. Sheri is originally from St. Albert, Alberta, but now lives and farms with her husband near Neerlandia, Alberta.

Sheri will assume the duties of supporting strategies and activities that will result in the continued development of a viable and sustainable pulse industry in Alberta. She will also oversee administrative, research, and financial activities of the Alberta Pulse Growers Commission.
